

BUY EVERYTHING

YOU NEED IN THE BOOT AND SHOE LINE AT
The Fred G. Haas Shoe Store.
We try to please you. We will sell you the best goods for the smallest amount of money of any Boot and Shoe firm in Salina.
It costs you nothing to get our prices and see our shoes.

Our Stock is Complete
In All Grades of Shoes.

We Ask For Your Trade and We Guarantee Satisfaction.

Respectfully,
Fred G. Haas,
125 North Santa Fe,
Salina, - - - Kansas.

THE JOURNAL.

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1890.

CIRCULATION
50 more than any other paper in Salina County.

CITY AND COUNTY.

The Beverly creamery was destroyed by fire May 13.

The hail broke many lights at Chilo during the hail storm Thursday night.

Mrs. J. J. Purcell has returned from her protracted visit to Covington, Ky., her old home.

Dr. Ackerman, of Eureka township, lost his horse and buggy in the flood, Thursday night.

Dr. Bishop is to deliver the memorial sermon before Bridge Post, G. A. R., next Sunday.

Sam. Wilson has returned from Oklahoma, having closed out about $5,000 worth of canned goods.

A gold watch was presented the other day to Rev. J. F. Floren, by the members of his congregation.

Maj. C. T. Hilton has received his commission as assistant inspector of the G. A. R. post in Salina county.

D. F. Gilbert, who has been lying at the point of death for several days, was a little improved yesterday.

M. M. Bridges left for St. Louis Tuesday, to receive treatment for his eyes, which are again troubling him.

The Missouri Pacific track on the western edge of the city was as good as a levee during the high water.

Edgar M. Baldwin, the bright, promising young editor of the Ellis Headlight, was a Salina visitor Saturday.

Richard Spencer, living near Gypsum City, lost his barn and other out buildings during Thursday night's storm.

The Salina friends of Mr. Norvall, of Denver, are pleased to hear that he is the father of a new boy—six pounds weight.

A K. T. Commandery is to be established in Ellsworth—a charter therefore having been granted by the proper authorities.

A brother of Jacob Dewitt, who is a prominent resident of Lockport, Ill., is an applicant for the Montreal Consul Generalship.

Andrew Ostberg, just from Sweden, is visiting his brother Henry A., the popular and well-known merchant of Smolan.

S. O. Mamberbach, accompanied by his mother, sister, Anna, and niece Katie Dewitt, left for Pennsylvania, on Tuesday.

Rail Peck has become the manager of the Rice cattle ranch. Rail is a capable, energetic young man and will no doubt fill the bill well.

James A. Hawkes, of Ohio, the gentleman who is interested in a large tract of Gypsum Creek land, is in the county looking after his interests.

The high water made ponds west of the city, and the ponds brought the ducks. As a consequence duck shooting was pretty fair the first of the week.

Messrs. H. P. Dillon, Master in Chancery, and D. C. Lockwood, attorney for the Union Pacific railway, were Salina visitors, Monday and Tuesday.

H. G. Johnson now has three contracts for boring, viz: Marion, Meade Center and Wilson. A $35,000 contract at Denver is one of the possibilities for his cut fit.

Rev. C. W. Casely will deliver a lecture Saturday evening, May 25, in the Wesleyan College Chapel, on "Kansas to London and Return." Admission free.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give a tissue paper social next Tuesday evening. Ice cream, strawberries and lemonade served. Everybody invited.

The old reliable farmers who predicted that we could not raise a good, old-fashioned corn-crop until Dry Creek overflowed its banks, are now doubtless ready to show that the crop is assured.

A reception given in honor of Rev. Enoch Powell, the unitarian minister, Monday night, at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Teague, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

One of our business men has gone on a strange journey—as full of doubt as that of James Gordon Bennett to Khartoum. It is surmised that the out put of the trip will greatly benefit Salina.

FARMERS, FOR YOU

Sweet Potato Plants, Tomato Plants, Cabbage Plants, etc., at Salina Floral Co.,

East Iron Ave., Across the Bridge.

THE JOURNAL.

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1890.

CIRCULATION

50 more than any other paper in Salina County.

CITY AND COUNTY.

The Beverly creamery was destroyed by fire May 13.

The hail broke many lights at Chilo during the hail storm Thursday night.

Mrs. J. J. Purcell has returned from her protracted visit to Covington, Ky., her old home.

Dr. Ackerman, of Eureka township, lost his horse and buggy in the flood, Thursday night.

Dr. Bishop is to deliver the memorial sermon before Bridge Post, G. A. R., next Sunday.

Sam. Wilson has returned from Oklahoma, having closed out about $5,000 worth of canned goods.

A gold watch was presented the other day to Rev. J. F. Floren, by the members of his congregation.

Maj. C. T. Hilton has received his commission as assistant inspector of the G. A. R. post in Salina county.

D. F. Gilbert, who has been lying at the point of death for several days, was a little improved yesterday.

M. M. Bridges left for St. Louis Tuesday, to receive treatment for his eyes, which are again troubling him.

The Missouri Pacific track on the western edge of the city was as good as a levee during the high water.

Edgar M. Baldwin, the bright, promising young editor of the Ellis Headlight, was a Salina visitor Saturday.

Richard Spencer, living near Gypsum City, lost his barn and other out buildings during Thursday night's storm.

The Salina friends of Mr. Norvall, of Denver, are pleased to hear that he is the father of a new boy—six pounds weight.

A K. T. Commandery is to be established in Ellsworth—a charter therefore having been granted by the proper authorities.

A brother of Jacob Dewitt, who is a prominent resident of Lockport, Ill., is an applicant for the Montreal Consul Generalship.

Andrew Ostberg, just from Sweden, is visiting his brother Henry A., the popular and well-known merchant of Smolan.

S. O. Mamberbach, accompanied by his mother, sister, Anna, and niece Katie Dewitt, left for Pennsylvania, on Tuesday.

Rail Peck has become the manager of the Rice cattle ranch. Rail is a capable, energetic young man and will no doubt fill the bill well.

James A. Hawkes, of Ohio, the gentleman who is interested in a large tract of Gypsum Creek land, is in the county looking after his interests.

The high water made ponds west of the city, and the ponds brought the ducks. As a consequence duck shooting was pretty fair the first of the week.

Messrs. H. P. Dillon, Master in Chancery, and D. C. Lockwood, attorney for the Union Pacific railway, were Salina visitors, Monday and Tuesday.

H. G. Johnson now has three contracts for boring, viz: Marion, Meade Center and Wilson. A $35,000 contract at Denver is one of the possibilities for his cut fit.

Rev. C. W. Casely will deliver a lecture Saturday evening, May 25, in the Wesleyan College Chapel, on "Kansas to London and Return." Admission free.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give a tissue paper social next Tuesday evening. Ice cream, strawberries and lemonade served. Everybody invited.

The old reliable farmers who predicted that we could not raise a good, old-fashioned corn-crop until Dry Creek overflowed its banks, are now doubtless ready to show that the crop is assured.

A reception given in honor of Rev. Enoch Powell, the unitarian minister, Monday night, at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Teague, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

One of our business men has gone on a strange journey—as full of doubt as that of James Gordon Bennett to Khartoum. It is surmised that the out put of the trip will greatly benefit Salina.

SWEET POTATO PLANTS

ORDER BY MAIL FILLED PROMPTLY.

Salina Floral Co.,

EAST IRON AVE., ACROSS THE BRIDGE.

THE JOURNAL.

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1890.

CIRCULATION

50 more than any other paper in Salina County.

CITY AND COUNTY.

The Beverly creamery was destroyed by fire May 13.

The hail broke many lights at Chilo during the hail storm Thursday night.

Mrs. J. J. Purcell has returned from her protracted visit to Covington, Ky., her old home.

Dr. Ackerman, of Eureka township, lost his horse and buggy in the flood, Thursday night.

Dr. Bishop is to deliver the memorial sermon before Bridge Post, G. A. R., next Sunday.

Sam. Wilson has returned from Oklahoma, having closed out about $5,000 worth of canned goods.

A gold watch was presented the other day to Rev. J. F. Floren, by the members of his congregation.

Maj. C. T. Hilton has received his commission as assistant inspector of the G. A. R. post in Salina county.

D. F. Gilbert, who has been lying at the point of death for several days, was a little improved yesterday.

M. M. Bridges left for St. Louis Tuesday, to receive treatment for his eyes, which are again troubling him.

The Missouri Pacific track on the western edge of the city was as good as a levee during the high water.

Edgar M. Baldwin, the bright, promising young editor of the Ellis Headlight, was a Salina visitor Saturday.

Richard Spencer, living near Gypsum City, lost his barn and other out buildings during Thursday night's storm.

The Salina friends of Mr. Norvall, of Denver, are pleased to hear that he is the father of a new boy—six pounds weight.

A K. T. Commandery is to be established in Ellsworth—a charter therefore having been granted by the proper authorities.

A brother of Jacob Dewitt, who is a prominent resident of Lockport, Ill., is an applicant for the Montreal Consul Generalship.

Andrew Ostberg, just from Sweden, is visiting his brother Henry A., the popular and well-known merchant of Smolan.

S. O. Mamberbach, accompanied by his mother, sister, Anna, and niece Katie Dewitt, left for Pennsylvania, on Tuesday.

Rail Peck has become the manager of the Rice cattle ranch. Rail is a capable, energetic young man and will no doubt fill the bill well.

James A. Hawkes, of Ohio, the gentleman who is interested in a large tract of Gypsum Creek land, is in the county looking after his interests.

The high water made ponds west of the city, and the ponds brought the ducks. As a consequence duck shooting was pretty fair the first of the week.

Messrs. H. P. Dillon, Master in Chancery, and D. C. Lockwood, attorney for the Union Pacific railway, were Salina visitors, Monday and Tuesday.

H. G. Johnson now has three contracts for boring, viz: Marion, Meade Center and Wilson. A $35,000 contract at Denver is one of the possibilities for his cut fit.

Rev. C. W. Casely will deliver a lecture Saturday evening, May 25, in the Wesleyan College Chapel, on "Kansas to London and Return." Admission free.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give a tissue paper social next Tuesday evening. Ice cream, strawberries and lemonade served. Everybody invited.

The old reliable farmers who predicted that we could not raise a good, old-fashioned corn-crop until Dry Creek overflowed its banks, are now doubtless ready to show that the crop is assured.

A reception given in honor of Rev. Enoch Powell, the unitarian minister, Monday night, at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Teague, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

One of our business men has gone on a strange journey—as full of doubt as that of James Gordon Bennett to Khartoum. It is surmised that the out put of the trip will greatly benefit Salina.

CUT FLOWERS, FLOWERS

ORDER BY MAIL FILLED PROMPTLY.

Salina Floral Co.,

EAST IRON AVE., ACROSS THE BRIDGE.

THE JOURNAL.

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1890.

CIRCULATION

50 more than any other paper in Salina County.

CITY AND COUNTY.

The Beverly creamery was destroyed by fire May 13.

The hail broke many lights at Chilo during the hail storm Thursday night.

Mrs. J. J. Purcell has returned from her protracted visit to Covington, Ky., her old home.

Dr. Ackerman, of Eureka township, lost his horse and buggy in the flood, Thursday night.

Dr. Bishop is to deliver the memorial sermon before Bridge Post, G. A. R., next Sunday.

Sam. Wilson has returned from Oklahoma, having closed out about $5,000 worth of canned goods.

A gold watch was presented the other day to Rev. J. F. Floren, by the members of his congregation.

Maj. C. T. Hilton has received his commission as assistant inspector of the G. A. R. post in Salina county.

D. F. Gilbert, who has been lying at the point of death for several days, was a little improved yesterday.

M. M. Bridges left for St. Louis Tuesday, to receive treatment for his eyes, which are again troubling him.

The Missouri Pacific track on the western edge of the city was as good as a levee during the high water.

Edgar M. Baldwin, the bright, promising young editor of the Ellis Headlight, was a Salina visitor Saturday.

Richard Spencer, living near Gypsum City, lost his barn and other out buildings during Thursday night's storm.

The Salina friends of Mr. Norvall, of Denver, are pleased to hear that he is the father of a new boy—six pounds weight.

A K. T. Commandery is to be established in Ellsworth—a charter therefore having been granted by the proper authorities.

A brother of Jacob Dewitt, who is a prominent resident of Lockport, Ill., is an applicant for the Montreal Consul Generalship.

Andrew Ostberg, just from Sweden, is visiting his brother Henry A., the popular and well-known merchant of Smolan.

S. O. Mamberbach, accompanied by his mother, sister, Anna, and niece Katie Dewitt, left for Pennsylvania, on Tuesday.

Rail Peck has become the manager of the Rice cattle ranch. Rail is a capable, energetic young man and will no doubt fill the bill well.

James A. Hawkes, of Ohio, the gentleman who is interested in a large tract of Gypsum Creek land, is in the county looking after his interests.

The high water made ponds west of the city, and the ponds brought the ducks. As a consequence duck shooting was pretty fair the first of the week.

Messrs. H. P. Dillon, Master in Chancery, and D. C. Lockwood, attorney for the Union Pacific railway, were Salina visitors, Monday and Tuesday.

H. G. Johnson now has three contracts for boring, viz: Marion, Meade Center and Wilson. A $35,000 contract at Denver is one of the possibilities for his cut fit.

Rev. C. W. Casely will deliver a lecture Saturday evening, May 25, in the Wesleyan College Chapel, on "Kansas to London and Return." Admission free.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give a tissue paper social next Tuesday evening. Ice cream, strawberries and lemonade served. Everybody invited.

The old reliable farmers who predicted that we could not raise a good, old-fashioned corn-crop until Dry Creek overflowed its banks, are now doubtless ready to show that the crop is assured.

A reception given in honor of Rev. Enoch Powell, the unitarian minister, Monday night, at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Teague, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

One of our business men has gone on a strange journey—as full of doubt as that of James Gordon Bennett to Khartoum. It is surmised that the out put of the trip will greatly benefit Salina.

TOMATO PLANTS

ORDER BY MAIL FILLED PROMPTLY.

Salina Floral Co.,

EAST IRON AVE., ACROSS THE BRIDGE.

THE JOURNAL.

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1890.

CIRCULATION

50 more than any other paper in Salina County.

CITY AND COUNTY.

The Beverly creamery was destroyed by fire May 13.

The hail broke many lights at Chilo during the hail storm Thursday night.

Mrs. J. J. Purcell has returned from her protracted visit to Covington, Ky., her old home.

Dr. Ackerman, of Eureka township, lost his horse and buggy in the flood, Thursday night.

Dr. Bishop is to deliver the memorial sermon before Bridge Post, G. A. R., next Sunday.

Sam. Wilson has returned from Oklahoma, having closed out about $5,000 worth of canned goods.

A gold watch was presented the other day to Rev. J. F. Floren, by the members of his congregation.

Maj. C. T. Hilton has received his commission as assistant inspector of the G. A. R. post in Salina county.

D. F. Gilbert, who has been lying at the point of death for several days, was a little improved yesterday.

M. M. Bridges left for St. Louis Tuesday, to receive treatment for his eyes, which are again troubling him.

The Missouri Pacific track on the western edge of the city was as good as a levee during the high water.

Edgar M. Baldwin, the bright, promising young editor of the Ellis Headlight, was a Salina visitor Saturday.

Richard Spencer, living near Gypsum City, lost his barn and other out buildings during Thursday night's storm.

The Salina friends of Mr. Norvall, of Denver, are pleased to hear that he is the father of a new boy—six pounds weight.

A K. T. Commandery is to be established in Ellsworth—a charter therefore having been granted by the proper authorities.

A brother of Jacob Dewitt, who is a prominent resident of Lockport, Ill., is an applicant for the Montreal Consul Generalship.

Andrew Ostberg, just from Sweden, is visiting his brother Henry A., the popular and well-known merchant of Smolan.

S. O. Mamberbach, accompanied by his mother, sister, Anna, and niece Katie Dewitt, left for Pennsylvania, on Tuesday.

Rail Peck has become the manager of the Rice cattle ranch. Rail is a capable, energetic young man and will no doubt fill the bill well.

James A. Hawkes, of Ohio, the gentleman who is interested in a large tract of Gypsum Creek land, is in the county looking after his interests.

The high water made ponds west of the city, and the ponds brought the ducks. As a consequence duck shooting was pretty fair the first of the week.

Messrs. H. P. Dillon, Master in Chancery, and D. C. Lockwood, attorney for the Union Pacific railway, were Salina visitors, Monday and Tuesday.

H. G. Johnson now has three contracts for boring, viz: Marion, Meade Center and Wilson. A $35,000 contract at Denver is one of the possibilities for his cut fit.

Rev. C. W. Casely will deliver a lecture Saturday evening, May 25, in the Wesleyan College Chapel, on "Kansas to London and Return." Admission free.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give a tissue paper social next Tuesday evening. Ice cream, strawberries and lemonade served. Everybody invited.

The old reliable farmers who predicted that we could not raise a good, old-fashioned corn-crop until Dry Creek overflowed its banks, are now doubtless ready to show that the crop is assured.

A reception given in honor of Rev. Enoch Powell, the unitarian minister, Monday night, at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Teague, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

One of our business men has gone on a strange journey—as full of doubt as that of James Gordon Bennett to Khartoum. It is surmised that the out put of the trip will greatly benefit Salina.

CABBAGE PLANTS

ORDER BY MAIL FILLED PROMPTLY.

Salina Floral Co.,

EAST IRON AVE., ACROSS THE BRIDGE.

THE JOURNAL.

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1890.

CIRCULATION

50 more than any other paper in Salina County.

CITY AND COUNTY.

The Beverly creamery was destroyed by fire May 13.

The hail broke many lights at Chilo during the hail storm Thursday night.

Mrs. J. J. Purcell has returned from her protracted visit to Covington, Ky., her old home.

Dr. Ackerman, of Eureka township, lost his horse and buggy in the flood, Thursday night.

Dr. Bishop is to deliver the memorial sermon before Bridge Post, G. A. R., next Sunday.

Sam. Wilson has returned from Oklahoma, having closed out about $5,000 worth of canned goods.

A gold watch was presented the other day to Rev. J. F. Floren, by the members of his congregation.

Maj. C. T. Hilton has received his commission as assistant inspector of the G. A. R. post in Salina county.

D. F. Gilbert, who has been lying at the point of death for several days, was a little improved yesterday.

M. M. Bridges left for St. Louis Tuesday, to receive treatment for his eyes, which are again troubling him.

The Missouri Pacific track on the western edge of the city was as good as a levee during the high water.

Edgar M. Baldwin, the bright, promising young editor of the Ellis Headlight, was a Salina visitor Saturday.

Richard Spencer, living near Gypsum City, lost his barn and other out buildings during Thursday night's storm.

The Salina friends of Mr. Norvall, of Denver, are pleased to hear that he is the father of a new boy—six pounds weight.

A K. T. Commandery is to be established in Ellsworth—a charter therefore having been granted by the proper authorities.

A brother of Jacob Dewitt, who is a prominent resident of Lockport, Ill., is an applicant for the Montreal Consul Generalship.

Andrew Ostberg, just from Sweden, is visiting his brother Henry A., the popular and well-known merchant of Smolan.

S. O. Mamberbach, accompanied by his mother, sister, Anna, and niece Katie Dewitt, left for Pennsylvania, on Tuesday.

Rail Peck has become the manager of the Rice cattle ranch. Rail is a capable, energetic young man and will no doubt fill the bill well.

James A. Hawkes, of Ohio, the gentleman who is interested in a large tract of Gypsum Creek land, is in the county looking after his interests.

The high water made ponds west of the city, and the ponds brought the ducks. As a consequence duck shooting was pretty fair the first of the week.

Messrs. H. P. Dillon, Master in Chancery, and D. C. Lockwood, attorney for the Union Pacific railway, were Salina visitors, Monday and Tuesday.

H. G. Johnson now has three contracts for boring, viz: Marion, Meade Center and Wilson. A $35,000 contract at Denver is one of the possibilities for his cut fit.

Rev. C. W. Casely will deliver a lecture Saturday evening, May 25, in the Wesleyan College Chapel, on "Kansas to London and Return." Admission free.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give a tissue paper social next Tuesday evening. Ice cream, strawberries and lemonade served. Everybody invited.

The old reliable farmers who predicted that we could not raise a good, old-fashioned corn-crop until Dry Creek overflowed its banks, are now doubtless ready to show that the crop is assured.

A reception given in honor of Rev. Enoch Powell, the unitarian minister, Monday night, at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Teague, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

One of our business men has gone on a strange journey—as full of doubt as that of James Gordon Bennett to Khartoum. It is surmised that the out put of the trip will greatly benefit Salina.

Wall Paper.